HYMN

Tune: Canonbury

The Lord our God alone is strong;
His hands build not for one brief day;
His wondrous works, through ages long,
His wisdom and His power display.

Thou sovereign God, receive this gift
Thy willing servants offer Thee;
Accept the prayers that thousands lift,
And let these halls Thy temple be.

And let those learn, who here shall meet,
True wisdom is with reverence crowned,
And science walks with humble feet
To seek the God that faith hath found.

—Caleb T. Winchester

COMMEMORATION HYMN-----Tune: Grostette

Thou Lord of Light, across the years
Thy shining path of love we see:
Bright glows amidst our joys and fears
The ardor of our faith in Thee.

The Teacher Thou of those who taught,
The Master Guide through learning's maze,
The theme of their profoundest thought,
The object of their reverent praise.

We thank Thee for these years of power,
For stalwart souls, for gentle life,
For men transformed to meet the hour
Of blasting wrong, of surging strife:

For men who gird the world with flame,
Who count, for Thee, all things but loss,
Who challenge nations, in Thy name,
To hear the story of the cross.

Yet beating through our gratitude,
We feel the pulse of coming days;
Thy truth must stand where it has stood;
New darkness waits its deathless rays.

High courage grant, the outlook broad,
The strength of joy, the zest for right,
The faith that burns, the sense of God,
Thy fellowship, Thou Lord of Light.

—Frank Mason North, LL.D.
